

Date:

Class:

Student Name:

1. What is the class of the underlined phrase? (ex: noun, adjective, adverb)

- You should respect your teacher at the school. → (adverb)

2. How many clauses in the sentence?

- I believe that Lane will be the winner this year. → (2)

3. Choose the incorrect one grammatically.

① Do you need a pencil?

② What did you do last weekend?

③ Don't be silly.

④ How a beautiful girl she is?

⑤ We couldn't do this anymore.

4. What is the subject and main verb in the sentence?

- That the world is round is a fact.

Subject : (That the world is round)

Main verb : (is)

5. Underline the predicate.

- The president started to give a speech.

[6~7] Find the wrong part of the sentence grammatically, and rewrite it.

6. Both horse has stripe.

→ Both horses have stripe.

7. The most important thing are to act first.

→ The most important thing is to act first.

8. Circle the correct one grammatically.

- When I turned on the TV, it (doesn't/didn't) work well.

[9~10] Fill in the blanks.

9. Rachel likes me more than Mike.

10. I'm interested in science as well as mathematics.