Jake's Diary

January 10, 2009

On vacation, I went to India with a group of more than 100 people. We were volunteers. Some people there don't have houses because they are very poor. Some children can't go to school because they have no schools and teachers. So we helped to build homes and schools for them. We also gave food and medicine to poor people. I played baseball with Indian children, and we had fun.

It was hard to move wood and brick for building, but I felt happy to help people in need.

8. What is Jake's diary about?

- ① Building houses and schools
- ② Visiting famous school in India
- ③ Helping poor people in India
- ④ Playing with Indian children

9. What did Jake do in India?

- ① Building hospitals
- ② Giving baseballs to Indian children
- ③ Building homes and schools
- ④ Teaching English to Indian children

10. Jake's friends want to do volunteer work in India. What will Jake tell them about the volunteer work?

- ① "It's not a good idea to do volunteer work."
- ② "You'll see many rich people in the world."
- ③ "It is hard , but you'll feel happy to help people."
- ④ "It is boring, and there is not much to do."
