[6~7] Read and choose the best answer.

Countries have traditional clothes. Scotland has the famous kilt. It looks like a skirt — but men, not women, wear it.

Often, the kilt has many colors. The pattern of the colors is a "plaid." Lines of color in a plaid go up and down. Sometimes we call it "check." A plaid looks very beautiful. The plaid is a famous symbol of Scotland.

6. Choose the correct picture of "a plaid"

①

②

③

④

7. Read and check T(true) or F(false).

(1) Kilt is a woman's skirt.

T ☐ F ☐

(2) Kilt has lines going up and down.

T ☐ F ☐

[8~10] Read and answer each question.

Long ago, the kilt was a kind of coat with no sleeves. Men covered their bodies with the kilt around their shoulders. They pulled it over the head when rain fell. It was good for soldiers. They could wear it in rain or sun. Now people call it the great kilt.

Later, people in Scotland made the kilt short. Then it looked like a skirt. They called it the small kilt. It was good for walking, because the legs could move freely. Now it is a famous symbol of Scotland!

Men in Scotland do not wear kilts every day. They wear kilts on special days like holidays
