Mars is the fourth planet from the sun. We call Mars the "red planet" or the "war planet."

Spaceships send us picture of Mars. In the picture, we see its red surface, so we call Mars the red planet. But why do we call Mars the "war planet?" Mars got its name from an old god of war. The Romans called Mars their war god. War means fire and blood. People called Mars the war planet because fire and blood are both red, like Mars.

6. What is thereading about?

① How people live on Mars

② How Mars got its name

③ Why Mars and Earth fight

④ Why people study Mars

7. Why do people call Mars the "war planet"?

- ① Because Mars often hits Earth in the past.
- ② Because many movies showed wars between Mars and Earth.
- ③ Because people on Mars like to fight with other planets.
- ④ Because Mars looks red like fire and blood in wars.
