How can people do things with their hands? Look at your hand. Your hand has four fingers and one thumb. The thumb works with each of your fingers. So you can pick things up and use tools. Most animals don't have a thumb and fingers. So they can't use tools as well as humans.

Each finger has a name. Next to your thumb is the index finger. The next is the middle finger. After that is the ring finger. The small one is the pinky. The thumb has 2 bones, and each finger has 3 bones. We can move our hand freely because of these small bones.

17. Choose the incorrect one.

- ① Most animals don't have fingers.
- ② We can grab things because of fingers.
- ③ The middle finger is between the ring finger and the index finger.
- ④ Each finger has 3 small bones.

Hi, Donald! Are you interested in foresters? That's great! Foresters usually work in the forest. There, we care for the land and the health of the forest. We check trees every day. Some trees are sick and they need special care. Sometimes we cut down old trees and plant new ones. We also check land and water. Land and water feeds trees. Foresters should know everything about trees. What's your favorite subject? Science is most important for the job. And math is important, too. We must measure lots of things. The forest is important in our life. We should take good care of it. Foresters do that job! It's not an easy job, but I love it!

Hi, my name is Kai. I am one of the Moken people. We live on the Andaman Sea. It's near southern Thailand and Myanmar. The sea is our home. We eat, sleep and do everything on the boat. So we have the nickname, "Sea Gypsies." The sea is a great home. My father and I fish every day. We swim and dive. I can go to the bottom of the sea. There, I collect seashells. They are great food for us. Sometimes, I sell them and buy rice.

But we can't go out to sea from June to October. It rains a lot, so the sea is dangerous. We must stay on the islands during this time.

We build a small house with bamboo and grass on the island. We catch some fish near the island. My father fixes the boat. Then we can go back to the sea with a strong boat.

20. Choose the incorrect one.

- ① Moken people are called, "Sea gypsies."
- ② Moken people build a house on the islands.
