

Date:

Class:

Name:

[1-3] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

A desert is a region with little rainfall. It rains less than 250 millimeters per year. A lot of water evaporates there. So its climate is very dry. There aren't lakes or rivers. Most of the desert's surface is covered with sand. There are (A)_____ plants. A desert is a very hot region. The temperature can reach more than 40°C in the daytime. But at night, it can fall to less than 0°C.

1. What is the weather like in deserts?

- ① It is less than 0°C in the daytime.
- ② It is more than 0°C in the daytime.
- ③ It is less than 40°C in the daytime.
- ④ It is more than 40°C in the daytime.

2. What can be in the blank(A)?

- ① few
- ② a few
- ③ lot
- ④ a lot

3. Why do deserts have dry climate?

- ① Because most of the desert's surface is covered with sand.
- ② Because a lot of water evaporates.
- ③ Because deserts are very hot regions.
- ④ Because there are no lakes or rivers.

[4-6] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

The world has several major deserts. The Sahara Desert is located in North Africa. It is the world's largest desert. The Kalahari Desert is also in Africa. Asia has three major deserts. The Arabian Desert lies in West Asia. It is the world's second largest desert. The Taklimakan Desert is located in part of Middle Asia. In Mongolia, there is the world's third biggest desert, the Gobi Desert.

4. What are the three major deserts in Asia?

the Arabian desert

the Taklimakan desert

the Gobi desert

5. Where is the world's largest desert located in?

- ① in Mongolia                      ② in West Asia                      ③ in Middle Asia                      ④ in North Africa

6. Which is NOT true about the world's deserts?

- ① The world's largest desert is the Sahara desert.
② The world's second largest desert is located in West Asia.
③ The world's third biggest desert is the Gobi desert.
④ In Middle Asia, there is the Kalahari desert.

[7-9] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

A desert is extremely dry and hot. It is a bad environment for living. (A) But animals and plants still live there. (B) Kangaroo rats make caves under the sand. So, they can escape the hot sun. (C) They can also change food into water inside their body. A cactus can ③ keep water in its stems and leaves. (D) So, they can survive!

7. What is the main topic of passage?

- ① How to survive in the desert
② The climate of the desert
③ What we need to live in the desert
④ The living environment in the desert

8. Where would the following sentence best fit in the passage?

They don't need much water.

- ① (A)                                      ② (B)                                      ③ (C)                                      ④ (D)

9. What does ③ keep mean?

- ① store                                      ② continue                                      ③ delay                                      ④ stay

10. Make a sentence.

아마존은 세계에서 가장 긴 강이다.

---