

Date:

Class:

Name:

[1-3] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

Today, we live in an information society. Thanks to the Internet, we can find any information easily. The Internet connects computers all around the world. So, people can get news from around the world. We can also talk with people everywhere. We can ①shop on the Internet, too. Now, the Internet is a big part of our life.

1. What can we not do with the internet?

- ① We can .
- ② We can buy clothes.
- ③ We can talk with friends.
- ④ We can find only information of our nation.

2. Which “shop” is used grammatically the same as ①?

- ① There is a flower shop on the street.
- ② I like to shop at the local market.
- ③ The man is sleeping in the shop.
- ④ This shop has lots of useful goods.

3. Choose the mismatched pair.

- ① new-news ② shop-shops ③ computer-computers ④ rule-rules

[4-6] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

The Internet does not always have good points. Sometimes it can make problems. Computer viruses spread through the Internet. So computers break down. Thieves can steal your personal information from the Internet. They do bad things with it. Some people spread lies on the Internet. They also bully others. It can hurt them.

4. What is the main topic of passage?

- ① Good points of the internet
- ② Bad points of the internet
- ③ Healthy internet use
- ④ The helpful internet

5. Which is not a trouble the internet causes?

- ① Thieves do bad things with people's personal information.
- ② People wire money.
- ③ Some people spread lies.
- ④ Computer viruses break down computers.

6. 3. Choose the mismatched pair.

- ① easy-easily
- ② happy-happily
- ③ bull-bully
- ④ final-finally

[7-9] Read the passage, and answer the following questions.

How should we use the Internet? Here are some rules for Internet etiquette, or "netiquette." First, respect others. (B) Do not use bad language towards others. Be polite to them. (C) Don't spread lies about other people. Don't say bad words about them. (D) Follow these rules. That will make the cyber world better and more pleasant.

7. What does netiquette mean?

- ① The way people use the computer
- ② Private information
- ③ Rules that people must follow online by law.
- ④ Etiquette that people should follow online

8. Which is NOT true about the passage?

- ① People should respect others online.
- ② People should pay for using the internet.
- ③ People should not use bad language towards others.
- ④ People should not spread lies about other people.

9. Where would the following sentence best fit in the passage?

Second, respect others' private lives.

- ① (A)
- ② (B)
- ③ (C)
- ④ (D)

10. Make a sentence.

우리는 네티켓을 지켜야 한다.

